

Foreword

Volume 5 of Practice With Bach is a continuation of my idea of making études from the keyboard works of Johann Sebastian Bach. These 24 studies are from the Six English Suites (BWV 806-811).

Two general tempo suggestions are given—Moderato and Lento. Moderato can mean any speed from moderate to fast. Lento implies a slower pulse. The études work well at many different speeds, so please experiment. Articulations are mine (with help from Glenn Gould). Dynamics are not indicated because many different sound levels can (and should) be explored. I would suggest always playing with a full tone and letting the dynamic rise and fall naturally with the musical phrase.

Although not intended for public performance, I hope that you will find these études technically challenging and musically rewarding.

1. [Moderato]

The first staff of music begins with a treble clef, a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#), and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo marking "[Moderato]" is placed above the staff. The notation consists of a sequence of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Several notes are marked with ornaments (wavy lines above the note head). Slurs are used to group phrases of notes.

The second staff continues the musical sequence. It features similar rhythmic patterns of eighth and sixteenth notes, with ornaments and slurs. The notation is consistent with the first staff, maintaining the key signature and tempo.

The third staff concludes the musical sequence. It continues with eighth and sixteenth notes, ornaments, and slurs. The notation remains consistent with the previous staves, ending with a final note and a fermata-like ornament.

[Lento]

The musical score consists of three staves of music in bass clef, 3/4 time. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a 3/4 time signature, followed by a bass clef. The tempo is marked [Lento]. The music features a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, often grouped with slurs and accents. The second staff continues the melodic line with similar phrasing, including a prominent slur over a group of notes. The third staff concludes the piece with a final flourish of notes, including a double bar line and a repeat sign.

17. [Moderato]

The musical score for exercise 17 is written in bass clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of three staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#), indicating the key of G major. The music features a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, and includes slurs, accents, and dynamic markings like 'z' (zaccato). The second and third staves continue the piece with similar rhythmic complexity and melodic lines.

[Moderato]
