Psalm 130

Kenneth Bray

This is an intensely personal composition which began as a piece for choir (SATB) and organ using the powerful lament, Psalm 130, as a basic text. The rather difficult choral setting which was created was the direct result of a tremendous upheaval in my personal life, namely, the loss of my partner of over fifty years after a lengthy illness.

In a somewhat harsh and dissonant opening section (m. 1-30) there is more than a little anger which replaces the more supplicative mood of the psalmist. However, you will note a gradual increase in feelings of humility and acceptance, peace and hope, as the work progresses. In the recapitulation, m. 78 to the end, there is a change to a more lilting metre, and the melodic intervals become softer and less angular.

May I suggest that, regardless of your spiritual leanings, a reading of the psalm used as my libretto may help you to realize my musical and dramatic purpose.

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord. Lord, hear my voice, m. 13
May your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications! m. 36
If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand? m. 40
But there is forgiveness with you, so that you may be revered. m. 43
I wait for the Lord; my soul waits, and in His word, I hope; m. 55 my soul waits for the Lord more than those who watch for the morning. m. 59
O Israel, hope in the Lord! For with the Lord there is steadfast love, m. 70 and with him is great power to redeem.
It is God who will redeem Israel from all its iniquities! m. 77

SUGGESTIONS FOR PERFORMANCES: The opening 2/2 bars respond to a moderate tempo. Let the fermata in m. 7 be a long one to allow for the tam-tam (gong) to be heard (and felt). M. 8-9, m. 16, 26 and m. 102-110 are somewhat more relaxed than the measures preceding them, but basically+K80=. Please don't hurry the triplet figures (which are in abundance). Be sure to highlight the imitative entries m. 83-87.

Again, may I suggest that a reading of the psalm may provide you with keys to the interpretation of this work in performance.

A graduate of the University of Toronto (Mus Bac) and the Eastman School of Music, University of Rochester (M M), Kenneth Bray began piano lessons at age 5, and later studied tuba in high school and bassoon at university level. Before war service in WWII with the RCAF, he was an itinerant music supervisor in several Muskoka District (Ontario) schools. After university studies, he taught high school, later serving on faculties at the universities of Toronto and Western Ontario. He has been active in teaching, performing, arranging and composing music most of his life. He has many choral and instrumental publications to his credit and has co-authored the following series: For Young Musicians, Solos for Schools and Reflections of Canada. He completed his career as Professor Emeritus at the University of Western Ontario.

Mr. Bray passed away in June 1999.

The musical score consists of eight staves, each representing a different instrument. The top four staves are for brass instruments: Tpt 1, Tpt 2, Tpt 3, and Flug. The bottom four staves are for woodwind instruments: Hn 1, Hn 2, Hn 3, and Hn 4. Measure 52 shows Tpt 1 and Flug playing eighth-note patterns. Measures 53 and 54 show Tpt 1, Tpt 2, and Tpt 3 playing eighth-note patterns. Measure 55 is labeled 'Adagio' with a tempo of  $\bullet = 68$ . Measures 56 through 60 show various patterns for the brass and woodwinds, with dynamics like mf and mp. A large, semi-transparent watermark reading 'PREVIEW ONLY' is centered over the middle section of the score.
